Abstract of the Disclosure

A mattress closing tape formed of a crochet-type warp knitted construction comprises a set of warp yarms knitted in parallel series of lengthwise-extending chain stitches, first and second base filling yarms inlaid widthwise in opposing relation to each other through the chain stitches of the warp yarms to form a base fabric layer, and third and fourth sets of multiple pattern filling yarms inlaid diagonally in opposing relation to one another beneath the underlaps of the warp yarms to form a diamond pattern layer.
